PREVIEW

DEDICATION

To Professor B. H. Meyer who, eighteen years ago, conceived the idea of a year book for our School; and who, since that date, has been the chief support and inspiration for all editorial staffs; to this profound scholar, master-teacher, Christian gentleman, and faithful friend of all cadets, this volume of The Blue Bonnet is dedicated in affectionate appreciation.

*This page is in appreciation of the School's most distinguished alumnus,
General
Douglas MacArthur
whose exemplary character, tenacious courage and resourceful strategy have endeared him not only to America at large, but also to the cadets of his Alma Mater. Our highest ambition is that we may follow him---even if from afar---and aspire to the ideals that have made him today
the "favorite son" of all the United Nations.*

A SENIOR BIDS FAREWELL TO HIS ROOM

Oh, dear little room, I've loved you so long,
And now I must bid you good-bye!
I've filled you with laughter, I've thrilled you with song,
And sometimes I've wished I could cry.
Your walls, they have witnessed a "wearyful" fight,
And rung to a won Waterloo,
But oh, in my triumph I'm saddened tonight—
Good-bye, little Room, to you.

I've seen when you've been the best friend that I had,
Your light like a gem on the snow.
You're sort of a part of me—gee, but I'm sad!
I hate, little Room, to go.
"Each day has its laugh," and "Don't worry, just work."
Such mottoes reproachfully shine;
Old calendars dangle—what memories lurk
About you, dear Room of mine.

I hear the world-call and the clang of the fight;
I hear the hoarse cry of my kind;
Yet well do I know, as I quit you tonight,
It's youth that I'm leaving behind.
And often I'll think of you, empty and black,
With pennants nailed over your door:
Oh, if I should perish, my ghost would come back
To dwell in you, Room, once more.

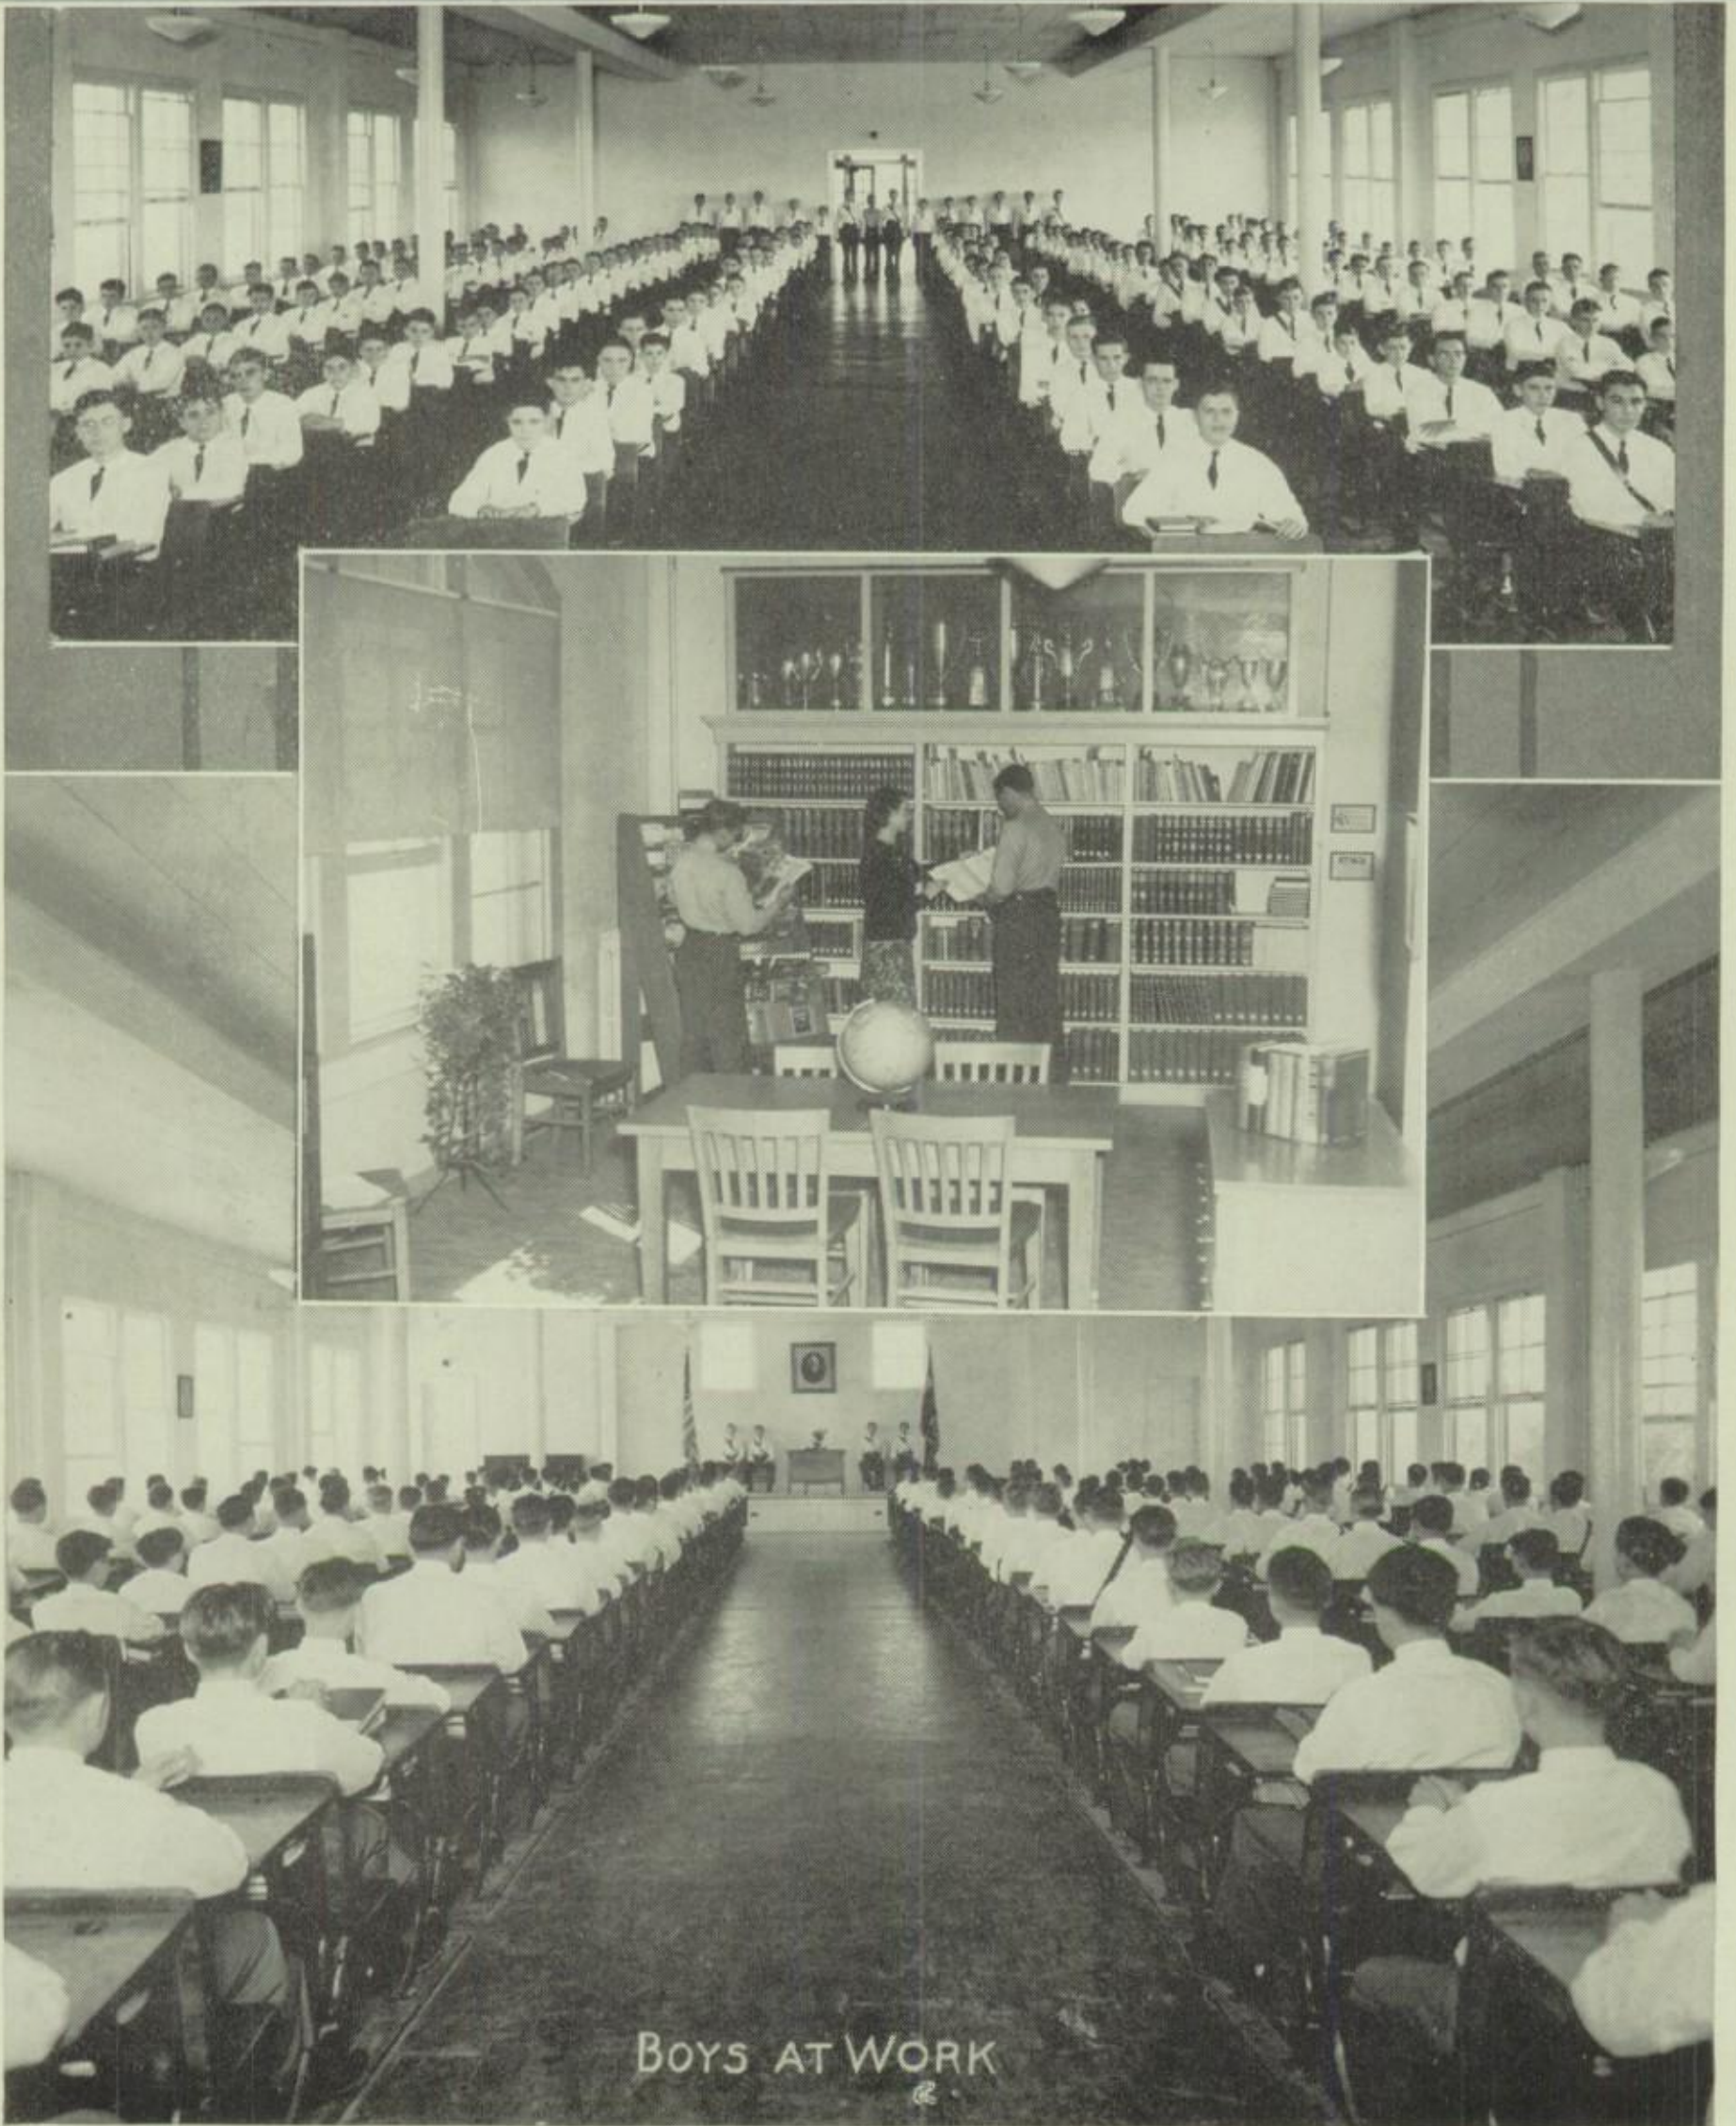

How cold, still and lonely, how weary you seem!
A last wistful look, and I'll go.
Oh, will you remember the lad with his dream,
The lad that you comforted so?
The shadows enfold you, there's coming the night;
The evening star needles the sky.
And oh! But it's stinging and stabbing my sight—
God bless you, old Room, good-bye!

—HUGH B. ABBEY.

------------	------------	-----------

Membership in the National Honor Society is the highest award for individual achievement that a cadet can receive. The members of this Society are chosen by the faculty and must stand high in scholarship, leadership, service, and character. The number of members is limited to five per cent of the juniors, and fifteen per cent of the seniors. T. M. I. is one of the very few private schools to enjoy the distinction of having a charter of this Society.

THE HONOR COUNCIL

The purpose of the Honor Council is to promote honesty and self-government, a higher standard of character and integrity, and to develop a fuller sense of responsibility and morality among the students. The members are elected by the student body and carry out the disciplinary functions of the constitution.

ECHOES

When the cadets filed out of the banquet room, they shook Dr. Bondurant's hand and thanked him for his generous hospitality. Little did they realize that a half dozen dictaphones, placed under the tables, had recorded their adolescent table gossip during the meal.

The boys like to mimic their teachers. Accordingly, it was only natural that the following gems of wit and wisdom should be echoed, mixed in with the "small change" of conversation:

"Today starts a new era at this school."—Captain Day.

"You gentlemens, which that is causing that confusement."—Sgt. Wilder.

"So you just flat didn't study—just flat don't care."—W. O. Miller.

"The book's wrong."—Prof. Landgraf.

"Boin the midnight oil."—Prof. Levy.

"Let's pick up a paper today."—Prof. Shaw.

"I wish to commend you on your conduct in study hall."—Prof. Bowman.

"We'll just have a short assignment for tomorrow."—Prof. Cobb.

"Surely, surely, you can reckernize your own pants."—Coach J. D.

"Sit in your un seat and do your un work."—Prof. Keyes.

"Now, when I was a boy—"—Prof. Culver.

"What is it, citizen?"—Prof. B.

RIFLE TEAM WINS NEW LAURELS

Under the supervision of Sergeant Wilder and Cadet Captain Stewart Hervey, our 1942 rifle team established itself as one of the best in T. M. I. history. In addition to winning team matches against North Texas Agricultural College, Fishburne Military Academy of Virginia, the University of Georgia, and the University of Maine, these sharpshooters won the Eighth Corps Area championship among all schools entered, and took first, second, and third places in the Hearst Trophy matches in this region.

S. A. A. BLUE BONNET STAFF

Top Row: CONNOLLY, PHILLIPS, SILVERMAN, WEAKLEY, PLUMLY, FRASHER.
Bottom Row: J. CALVERT, R. CALVERT, MONTGOMERY, MUIR, SHAW, KAYTON.

"The people of America agree . . . that liberty is worth fighting for. And if they are obliged to fight, they will fight eternally to hold it.

"This duty we owe, not to ourselves alone, but to the many dead who died to gain our freedom for us . . . to make the world a place where freedom can live and grow into the ages."

—FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, November 11, 1941.

IN this year of the nation's trial, the 1942 staff of San Antonio Academy dedicates this section of the Blue Bonnet to Freedom, to Human Freedom, and to the fight for freedom, wherever and whenever the fight has been or is being made, and particularly in our own land. . . .

"YOU ARE MAGNIFICENT"

. . . . . To the former students of SAN ANTONIO ACADEMY who are now in some branch of the armed services, we extend our best wishes and heartiest congratulations on the noble and patriotic spirit that you are showing.

We are indeed proud of you and of the true courage that you are displaying wherever you are. You have the "stuff" that it takes as you have been trained in patriotism from very infancy, and may you ever emulate the high ideal of American manhood.

Almost daily our old students, now in the Army, the Air Service or the Navy, drop in for a visit, and we are always delighted to see them. They often give us news of your whereabouts, and we in turn are glad when we can tell them where some old friend of their Academy days is now located.

We never cease to be interested in you and in what you are doing, and when the road gets hard and the going is "tuff", we want you to know that we are with you in spirit and that our prayers are ever with you and for you.

"The world must be made safe for democracy. Its peace must be planted upon the tested foundations of political liberty. We have no selfish ends to serve. We desire no conquest, no dominion. We seek no indemnities for ourselves, no material compensation for the sacrifices we shall freely make. We are but one of the champions of the rights of mankind. We shall be satisfied when those rights have been made as secure as the faith and the freedom of nations can make them.

"To such a task we can dedicate our lives and our fortunes, everything that we are and everything that we have, with the pride of those who know that the day has come when America is privileged to spend her blood and her might for the principles that gave her birth and happiness and the peace which she had treasured. God helping her, she can do no other."

The power of oratory was never more convincingly demonstrated than when in March, 1775, in old St. John's Church in Richmond, Virginia, the fiery-tongued Patrick Henry stood forth and declaimed:

"Is life so dear, or peace so sweet, as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery? Forbid it, Almighty God. I know not what course others may take; but as for me, give me liberty or give me death!"

Like a flame the report of Henry's ringing appeal spread throughout the colonies and did much to usher in the Revolution.

Ten years before Patrick Henry made his ringing appeal in old South Church, Richmond, James Otis had flamed into view when he resigned his office as the King's Advocate in Massachusetts and made in Boston an eloquent plea against the issuance of writs of assistance, general search warrants that would permit the King's officers to ransack any house in the town for smuggled goods. The five-hour speech of Otis was a clarion call to the people to resist.

John Adams, then a young law student, heard the speech and later wrote, "Otis was a flame of fire. Then and there the child Independence was born."

The San Antonio Academy Council of the American Junior Red Cross was begun on November 17, 1941. On that day the officers of the four groups were elected. They are shown above with their names below the picture. The four memberships were secured on November 19. At the same time four dollars were donated to the Red Cross service fund.

A few days later, the boys started to collect waste paper and coat hangers. The first batch of paper was sold on January 27, 1942. It brought $2.48. The coat hangers have not been sold yet. We are still collecting paper.

Academy boys are very glad that we have a part, small though it may be, in helping America at this critical time through Red Cross work.

—TIM WEAKLEY.

"The Lady With the Lamp," was the affectionate way the British soldiers in the military hospitals of the Russian Crimea spoke of Florence Nightingale during the Crimean War. This frail-figured but tender-hearted English gentlewoman left her sheltered home in England to take charge of hospitals in the Crimea, and because of her daily custom of visiting the cots of the soldiers at night with a lamp in her hand, she, Angel of Mercy that she was, became known throughout the hospital base as "The Lady With the Lamp."

The Red Cross societies of the world had their inspirational inception in the noble example of Florence Nightingale. The American Red Cross was founded in 1881 by Clara Barton, whose life in many ways paralleled that of Miss Nightingale's. During the American Civil War, Miss Barton nursed the wounded soldiers of the North, and because of her habit of being not far behind the front lines, she became known as "The Angel of the Battlefields."

"TIMES THAT TRY MEN'S SOULS"

THINGS AGAINST TYRANNY

"These are the times that try men's souls. The summer soldier and the sunshine patriot will, in this crisis, shrink from the service of his country; but he that stands it now deserves the love and thanks of man and woman. Tyranny, like hell, is not easily conquered; yet we have this consolation with us, that the harder the conflict, the more glorious the triumph. What we obtain too cheap, we esteem too lightly: 'tis dearness only that gives everything its value. Heaven knows how to put a proper price upon its goods; it would be strange indeed, if so celestial an article as freedom should not be highly rated."

—From "The Crisis," published by THOMAS PAINE, in 1776, at a time when the patriot cause was passing through its darkest hours.

"OUR COUNTRY, RIGHT OR—"

"Our Country! In her intercourse with foreign nations may she always be in the right; but our Country, right or wrong."

—By STEPHEN DECATUR, whose heroic naval action in the Mediterranean cleared the sea of the banditry of the Barbary states.

Basket ball reached the height of interest at the Academy this year with two teams entered in the Bexar County Junior Conference. These were a Midget team and a "C" team. From fifteen to twenty other boys played or worked out during our play periods. In this connection we should not forget the Termites.

The Midgets were undefeated in Conference play, scoring 162 points to their opponents' 99 in seven games. The "C's" broke even in Conference play, winning 5 and losing 5, while scoring 166 points to their opponents' 172.

Letter men for the season were Connolly, Dugay, Elliott, Hilgartner, Hill, Johnson, Melgar, Merck, Palmer, Troost, and Zepeda.

"ON MY LIFE AND HONOR—"

"On my life and honor I swear that this arm shall never rest until it has delivered America from the yoke of tyrants."

—SIMON BOLIVAR.

How well Bolivar put this declaration into force is shown by the fact that after being victor in 200 battles, he freed from foreign domination six South American countries, among which was Venezuela, his native land.

Let freedom ring.*

*Our fathers' God, to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To Thee we sing:
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.*

—From "America,"

Written in 1832 by the REVEREND SAMUEL SMITH.

WARS ARE WON ON wheels

On the battlefield, and behind the lines, wheels play a vital part in modern warfare. Transportation is essential for the nation's armed forces and its workers.

Our job is to transport more and more workers to their jobs every day.

Your transit system accepts this task—the most challenging it has ever faced. As the need increases, we are stepping up and expanding service to the limit of our resources. This is our pledge to you . . . and to America!

Graduates of 1942 . . . . Congratulations

Joske's and the Youth of Southwest Texas have long been "good companions." For Joske's is more than just a store, it's a personality . . . always hospitable, always ready to serve you through large stocks, newest fashions and values that let you keep to your budget. Young folks like the warm friendliness of this store and you see them here often, buying with the confidence they place in a real friend.

JOSKE'S

SAN ANTONIO

Because of this deep friendship between Youth and a Store, Joske's has grown steadily greater. It's now considered one of the most beautiful stores in America . . . like a whole city of shops under one roof—always waiting to please you, your family, your friends.
